

CP298:

Smart Cities

Urbanization & Digital Technology

Overview

The course will:

Review challenges of rapidly urbanizing society; evaluate solutions posed by potential and existing applications of information and communication technology; discuss the roles of public and private sector in technology provision; foster group-based "smart" solutions

Crowdsourced Info: openstreetmap.org

Smart Meters: pge.com

Structure

Guest lectures, class presentations
Semester-long group project on "smart" city application

Smart Parking: sfpark.com

Interested?

Meets Thursdays 5:30 to 7:00pm
Location: 214B Wurster
FIRST MEETING: 08/23/2012

IBM: smartercitieschallenge.org

2 units, Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory
Instructor: Paul Waddell